

Emporia Public Library

Study Room Policy

Approved by the Library Board March 10, 2022

Three quiet study rooms are available for use by the public.

One of the rooms is available on a first come, first served walk-in basis. The other two rooms may be reserved up to one month in advance by contacting the Public Service desk. Room keys should be picked up at and returned to the Public Service desk.